

Summary of Responses to Consultation on the Exchange of Republic of Korea Driving Licences.

The consultation document on the Exchange of Republic of Korean driving licences issued 28 June 2002 proposed the exchange of Republic of Korean driving for the British equivalent. This document was also posted on this site. The consultation ended on 9 August 2002.

Responses received were as follows:

States of Jersey DVS	Agree. No objections
RACMS	Agree. No objections
Association of Industrial Road Safety Officers	Agree. No objections
Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents	Agree. No objections
Association of Chief Police Officers England/Wales	Agree. No objections
Association of Chief Police Officers Scotland	Disagree. Concerns about pre-1997 tests.
Foreign and Commonwealth Office	Agree. No comment
Justice's Clerks' Society	Agree. No objections
Institute of Advanced Motorists	Agree. No comment