

# APPENDIX D

STATUTORY TYPE APPROVAL

Approval Body: Secretary of State for the Overseeing Organisations of England, Scotland and Wales.

Types of traffic signs which are required to have statutory type approval are as follows:

Description	Specification Clause
Variable message signs	#1201 1201NAW
<sup>1</sup> Road studs incorporating a steady or intermittent light source as described in direction 57(2) or (3) of TSRGD 2002 (05/05)	#1213
Traffic signal and control equipment	1217

(05/05) Notes

1 Statutory Type Approvals for road studs incorporating a light source as listed in Annex B, see SA1 (MCHW 0.3.1), and issued by the Secretary of State apply to England only. Scotland and Wales issue their own Statutory Type Approvals. In Northern Ireland, the Department for Regional Development (Northern Ireland) recognises the Statutory Type Approvals in England or in interim cases, issue Director of Engineering memorandum.

2 #denotes alternative approval procedures apply for the Overseeing Organisation of the Department for Regional Development (Northern Ireland). See Appendix E (NI)

APPENDIX D (NI)

STATUTORY TYPE APPROVAL

No Statutory Type Approval requirements.