1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1 This Note describes the requirements and procedures for the issue of a Certificate of Equivalent Competency (CEC), which will enable Officers holding STCW certificates issued by certain non-UK countries to work as Officers on UK-registered merchant ships. This Note reiterates the information previously contained in MGN 179 concerning who qualifies for the certificate and how to apply for it, and explains some additional means of fulfilling the requirements.

2.0 BACKGROUND

2.1 Under the Merchant Shipping (Training and Certification) Regulations 1997, Officers serving on UK merchant ships are required to hold a UK Certificate of Competency (CoC) or a UK Certificate of Equivalent Competency (CEC). The Regulations allow Officers who hold STCW certificates issued by certain other Administrations (listed at Annex 1) to be recognised for service in any position (including Master, Mate and Chief Engineer) on UK ships.

2.2 The position of Master on some types of UK ships (known as strategic ships) is restricted to nationals of certain countries as a result of the Merchant Shipping (Officer Nationality) Regulations 1995. Annex 3 sets out the details as they currently stand but those Regulations are the subject of discussion, which is likely to lead to amendment or reinterpretation in due course.

2.3 CECs will be issued, on application, to Officers holding STCW CoCs issued by other Administrations in all cases where the UK authorities are satisfied that there are no substantial differences between the standard set by the UK and that represented by other certificates. The CEC will carry identical rights and obligations as a CoC and, like the CoC, it will require revalidation at least every five years and holders will be subject to statutory procedures relating to their conduct.

A CEC will remain valid only as long as the original STCW CoC remains valid. At all times, the underlying non-UK STCW CoC must be carried with the CEC and be made available for inspection by duly authorised persons.

2.4 Employers can treat a valid CEC as meeting their obligations under the Merchant Shipping (Training and Certification) Regulations and for Safe Manning Documents in exactly the same way as they have accepted CoCs to date.

2.5 These new arrangements are consistent with EC Directives 89/48/EEC and 92/51/EEC (as amended by 2001/19/EC), which set out requirements for the mutual recognition of qualifications and training.

3.0 REQUIREMENTS

3.1 The MCA must ensure that applicants for CECs are qualified to the equivalent standards as holders of UK CoCs. To do this it will consider the standards of education and training represented by the applicant's STCW CoC and where there is no significant difference it will issue a CEC. However, where the MCA judges that a difference in standard does exist, it will assess individual applicants in those subject areas where there is a shortfall.

3.2 There are three main areas where a difference could exist and which would then need to be assessed:

- Standards of Competency;
- Use of the English language;
- Knowledge of UK Legal and Administrative Processes (UKLAP).

There are several ways in which an individual applicant's standards in each of the above can be ensured and these are described in the following paragraphs.

Competency

3.3 No CEC will be issued until the standards of technical competency of the relevant country are found by the MCA to be equivalent to those of the UK.

3.4 USA applicants who hold 500gt and 3000gt (International Tonnage) Certificates of Competency will need to meet the requirements set out in Annex 8 by taking an Oral Examination of Competency at an MCA Marine Office. This is in addition to meeting the other requirements of this MGN.

English Language

3.5 It is a requirement of the Merchant Shipping (Minimum Standards of Safety Communications) Regulations 1997 that a common language exist among Officers on board UK ships. Since these Officers are required to read and understand English publications on board, the most useful common language for a UK ship is English. This is also the most commonly used language for international communication.

3.6 If the MCA is satisfied that the applicant's original STCW CoC satisfactorily tested oral and written English language skills no further test in this topic will be required.

3.7 If this is not the case, there are various forms of evidence acceptable to the MCA. These are set out in Annex 4.

UK Legal and Administrative Processes (UKLAP)

3.8 All Officers other than Officers of the Watch must have sufficient knowledge of UK legal and administrative processes to enable efficient ship operation. Unless applicants can prove that they have this knowledge they must be assessed in one of the ways outlined below.

3.9 Masters applying for CECs may, with MCA approval, undertake an oral examination conducted by an MCA examiner, using the MCA's syllabus (see Annex 6 for details of the Grade 1 syllabus).

3.10 Alternatively, they may take the UKLAP Grade 1 open book written test. The test can be taken by arrangement with SQA (Scottish Qualifications Authority) at one of their UK examination centres or at British Council centres abroad.

3.11 As an alternative to the examination route Masters who are nationals of EEA states may attain the required UKLAP knowledge during a shipboard adaptation period of up to 36 months served on board a UK ship. The exact period is at the discretion of the MCA and will be advised on application. As a guide Adaptation Periods normally vary between 2 and 6 months. This should be requested on the Application to Serve an Adaptation Period Form MSF 4206/REV 0895. They will be issued with a temporary CEC at a lower rank, valid for up to six months.

3.12 On completion of the Adaptation Period an Adaptation Report Form MSF 4271/REV 0601 must be completed by the Master of the vessel carrying out the assessment. This is a numbered document and it attests that the candidate has an adequate knowledge of UKLAP. A Master, holding either an UK CoC or a full UK CEC, should complete the form and return it to MCA. If the Master of the vessel holds a temporary CEC, responsibility for the assessment during Adaptation Periods must lie with the shipping company. The Adaptation Report form must additionally be counter-signed and returned to MCA by a senior representative of the shipping company. This representative must be satisfied that they can attest to the candidate's knowledge of UKLAP. A covering letter explaining that the Master holds a temporary CEC should be sent with the form. The CEC will be upgraded once the Adaptation Period has been completed and the Adaptation Report has been submitted to the MCA and approved.

3.13 Chief Mate, Chief or 2nd Engineer applicants for CECs at the above levels will be required to undertake the UKLAP Grade 2 open book examination taken by arrangement with SQA at one of their UK examination centres or at British Council centres abroad. See Annex 7 for details of the Grade 2 syllabus.

3.14 As an alternative to the examination route applicants may attain the required UKLAP knowledge during a shipboard adaptation period of up to 36 months served on board a UK ship. The exact period is at the discretion of the MCA and will be advised on application. As a guide Adaptation Periods usually vary between 2 and 6 months. On completion of the Adaptation

Period the Master carrying out the assessment, who holds either an UK CoC or a full UK CEC, should sign and return the MCA's Adaptation Report Form. If the Master of the ship carrying out the assessment holds a temporary CEC, responsibility for assessment during Adaptation Periods must lie with the shipping company. The Adaptation Report form must additionally be counter-signed and returned to MCA by a senior representative of the shipping company. This representative must be satisfied that they can attest to the candidate's knowledge of UKLAP. A covering letter explaining that the Master holds a temporary CEC should be sent with the form. The CEC will be upgraded once the Adaptation Period has been completed and the Adaptation Report has been submitted to the MCA and approved.

Medical fitness

3.15 Applicants will be required to prove an appropriate standard of medical fitness and eyesight. Annex 2 gives details of countries whose medical certificates are currently recognised by the MCA. These are, however, due to be reviewed and amendments to Annex 2 will be published in due course.

4. APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND DOCUMENTATION

4.1 All documentation and evidence required by the MCA should be submitted as originals with the application. Photocopies of Certificates of Competency and other documents may be submitted as long as they are endorsed as true copies of the original by the issuing country's administration or a MCA official. Alternatively, companies may elect to endorse copies on behalf of their applicants by entering into a formal agreement with the MCA. In such cases, the company must see the original documentation.

NB Where copies of documents have been submitted a temporary CEC only will be issued. Original documents must be sent to the MCA for verification before a full (5 year) CEC will be issued.

4.2 Original documents must be sent to the MCA for verification at the end of the current tour of duty.

4.3 The following is a brief checklist of the necessary documentation, which should be submitted to the MCA's Seafarer Training and Certification Branch at the address given in paragraph 10.1:

- Application form (MSF 4203) completed by the seafarer with the seafarer's original signature, together with four attested photographs and the appropriate fee, currently £70 per seafarer. See also Annex 9 for the range of fees, which are currently under review. Consequent changes will be published separately. Payment should be by cheque, banker's draft or postal order made payable to the Maritime and Coastguard Agency. Credit cards are also now accepted;

- Non- UK CoC - All pages of CoCs issued by recognised countries MUST be included – the CoC must bear an STCW95 endorsement;

- Valid UK Medical Certificate (ENG1) or other medical certificate acceptable to the MCA (see Annex 2);

- Passport or Discharge Book – proof of national identity is required preferably the Discharge Book, but a full passport will be accepted as an alternative;

- Evidence of competency in English and UKLAP (see paragraphs 3.5 – 3.14 and Annexes 4,5,6 and 7).

4.3 On receipt of the above documentation, the Seafarer Training and Certification Branch will assess the application in accordance with the requirements specified in Section 3.

4.4 Applicants who fully meet the requirements and have submitted original documentation will be issued with a full UK CEC. Where photocopies are submitted, a temporary CEC will be issued for up to six months pending receipt of the original documentation.

- 4.5 Applicants who do not fully meet the requirements will be issued with a Notice of Assessment explaining the measures they must take in order to enable a CEC to be issued.
- 5.0 COMPANY BASED ASSESSMENTS
- 5.1 Where there is an urgent need to ensure that a ship is able to sail under the UK flag with appropriately certificated crew, and in order to minimise the risk of Officers being without documentation during a Port State Control Inspection, the following may apply:
- certain Companies, with prior approval from the MCA, may be allowed to attest, by letter signed by a senior company official, to candidates' knowledge and understanding of English based on the MCA criteria checklist (see Annex 5). We recommend the approach outlined in Annex 5, against which Company procedures will be audited, and the completed criteria checklist should be copied to the MCA with the application. All sections must be completed and endorsed with the company stamp;
 - Certificates of Competency and other documents may be faxed from the ship to the Company, but they need to be accompanied by confirmation from the ship's Master that they are faxes of the original; original documents must be sent to the MCA for verification at the end of the current tour of duty;
 - Companies that carry out these assessments will be subject to an audit of either the Company or the ship, where the auditor may require to see documentation and evidence of assessments and, if possible and where appropriate, to speak to the Officer(s).
- 6.0 TEMPORARY CECs
- 6.1 Temporary CECs may be issued in the following circumstances:
- Masters of UK ships flagging in, who, for operational reasons, cannot be replaced immediately in order to fulfil the UKLAP requirements, may be given temporary CECs for up to six months (see paragraph 3.11);
 - in order to enable Officers other than Masters and OOW to complete an Adaptation Period (see paragraph 3.14); no further fee will be charged for issuing full CECs at the end of successfully completed Adaptation Periods;
 - where attested photocopies are submitted at the time of application, a temporary CEC will be issued pending receipt of the original documentation;
 - only Companies meeting the MCA standards for flagging in may carry a full complement of Officers serving an Adaptation Period, at or below the rank specified on their CoC.
- 6.2 A Temporary CEC will be issued for a period of 6 months. During this time, the applicant is expected to meet fully the requirements for issue of a full CEC and provide all remaining information and documentation to the MCA. An extension will not normally be granted.
- 6.3 If there are genuine and compelling reasons for an applicant not being able to meet fully the requirements within the 6 month period, a further temporary CEC may exceptionally be issued at the discretion of the MCA for a maximum period of a further 3 months.
- 6.4 Full justification for the extension must be provided with the application together with the appropriate fee and application form.
- 6.5 All remaining requirements must be met within this further 3 month period. No further extension will be granted.
- 7.0 RECOGNITION OF COMPETENCE
- 7.1 Those countries whose standards of competency have been considered as being equivalent to those in the UK are listed in Annex 1. This will be updated as and when the position changes by means of a Marine Information Note (MIN)..

8.0 REVALIDATION

8.1 Original Certificates of Competency will need to be duly revalidated before a revalidated UK CEC can be issued. Form (MSF 4272) for revalidating UK CECs is available from Seafarer Training and Certification Branch at the address below. All Officers will need to send in their existing CEC, their revalidated CoC and a valid medical certificate.

8.2 If additional endorsements or a higher certificate are requested, relevant supporting documentation will be required. This requires a new application and fee.

9.0 IMMIGRATION RULES

9.1 CEC applicants who are not nationals of EEA countries should note that they might need to have a work permit if they are intending to work on a ship which operates solely within UK territorial waters.

10.0 APPLICATION FORMS

10.1 All relevant forms and further information are available from:

COUNTRIES WHOSE CERTIFICATES OF COMPETENCY HAVE BEEN EVALUATED FOR THE PURPOSES OF COMPARING STANDARDS OF COMPETENCY WITH THOSE OF THE UK

To date, the following countries' standards of competency and administration arrangements have been evaluated by the MCA and are considered to be equivalent to UK arrangements for the purpose of issuing Certificates of Equivalent Competency. CECs are normally issued to applicants with capacities and limitations equivalent to their own national CoCs. However, CECs may be issued with lower capacities and limitations if requested.

We accept all those listed below under STCW 95. Up to date information is available from the MCA and changes will be published in Marine Information Notes (MINs) as necessary.

STRATEGIC SHIPS

1. Vessels registered in the UK which are defined in the Merchant Shipping (Officer Nationality) Regulations 1995 as "strategic" will be required to have a British, British Commonwealth, NATO or EU national, or a national of a state which is party to the EEA Agreement, as Master.
2. "Strategic" vessels are defined as:
 - a) Fishing Vessels over 24 metres in length;

EVIDENCE OF KNOWLEDGE OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE

The following is acceptable evidence of competency in English. The MCA will need to see documented proof of attainment in one of the following methods:

- Confirmation of proficiency by an MCA surveyor on board ship or in a Marine Office.
- Passing the Marlins test at an approved Marlins Test Centre (currently available in Poland, Croatia, Ukraine, the Philippines, India, Latvia, Russia and Spain – addresses available from MCA and the Marlin company home page <http://www.marlins.co.uk/>). At present, this needs to be accompanied by a Company interview to confirm that the owners/managers assess the seafarer's spoken English to be of an acceptable standard in order to carry out their shipboard duties. The results of the interview can be relayed in a letter from the Company to the MCA.

The minimum acceptable pass marks (to be submitted on a Marlins approved centre stamped computer printout) are as follows:

Deck Officers		Engineering Officers
Senior Deck Officers	90%	Senior Engineering Officers	80%

- Satisfying the MCA that English is the candidate's mother tongue (first language).
- Holding a STCW Certificate of Competency for which the examinations were conducted in English.
- Holding an advanced English Language Certificate issued by the British Council or an International Language Testing System (IELTS) Test Report showing Overall Band of at least 6.
- Holding a Certificate of TOEFL (Test Of English as a Foreign Language) as applicable for admission into US universities.
- Holding a Berlitz Language School Level 2+ Certificate endorsed by the Company.
- Passing the MCA English language test administered for MCA by the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA) and conducted by arrangement with SQA in any British Council office anywhere in the world.

RECOMMENDED CRITERIA FOR COMPANY-BASED ENGLISH ASSESSMENTS FOR CERTIFICATES OF EQUIVALENT COMPETENCY

WHEN TO USE

The assessment method outlined below is for use particularly where applicants for UK Certificates of Equivalent Competency (CECs) are newly or recently recruited and the Company is not otherwise aware of their level of English. The checklist should be used to confirm standards of English and as an auditable record for all CEC applicants.

THE ASSESSMENT

This is to be conducted on a one-to-one basis with a native English speaker ('the interviewer'). Where possible the assessments should be tape-recorded. It should consist of three separate sections of approximately one hour in duration altogether. Where there is doubt as to whether certain criteria are being met there may be a need to retry during the assessment, but if the point has to be pressed it should be left.

Section 1 - oral interview

This should cover general topics, for example career to date, future plans. The questions should enable and encourage discursive responses allowing the seafarer the chance to ask questions or seek clarification.

Section 2 - live listening/comprehension

The interviewer should, at a steady pace, read a passage lasting 3-5 minutes of a generally maritime nature, e.g. an incident or a procedure. The seafarer may take notes throughout (in their own language if preferred). They should be allowed 2-3 minutes to look over their notes and then be asked to describe the incident in their own words, summarising the main points.

Section 3 - specific/job focused communications

This Section needs to be tailored to the vocabulary relating to the specific functions to be undertaken by the seafarer. This may need to include listening to radio messages, loudspeaker announcements, and should certainly include the testing of comprehension and communication of the type of orders, statements and requests that the seafarer is likely to hear or have to make.

CRITERIA CHECKLIST

These criteria are to help establish levels of listening and speaking abilities and are to be filled in each time an assessment of new recruits is made and in all CEC applications to confirm established competence. The criteria are to be used as a checklist and where the interviewer decides that one/some are not met that is to be noted for the record against the criterion (a tick for met and a cross for not met). It will be for the Company to decide whether failure to meet any of the criteria means the seafarer's level of English would not be sufficient to carry out their functions safely and effectively.

The completed criteria sheet and, where available, the tape recording will form the basis of the documentation required for audit.

CRITERIA CHECKLIST (insert ✓ for met or ✗ for not met)

Speaking

- 1. Clarity - language is sufficiently clear and accurate to be understood by native and non-native speakers of English; any inaccuracies, faults in intonation or hesitation do not impede comprehension of the points being made.
- 2. Initiation of dialogue - there is evidence of the seafarer not simply echoing or responding, but also of taking the conversation forward, asking questions and raising other issues.
- 3. Vocabulary - the seafarer can speak about their main job functions and communicate in both familiar and unfamiliar situations;
- their vocabulary is extensive enough to allow some flexibility of expression, and is appropriate to the context/topic.

Listening

- 4. The seafarer shows he can understand the overall theme in ways other than repeating back to the examiner word for word.
- 5. Key points can be identified.
- 6. Inferences and conclusions can be drawn.
- 7. The seafarer can demonstrate understanding of work-related communications delivered in a variety of registers and in varying degrees of complexity.
