

Map of Key Inland Waterways of Great Britain with Freight Potential

Report

Map of Key Inland Waterways of Great Britain with Freight Potential. Produced for the Department for Transport Freight and Logistics Division by Capita Symonds Ltd.

Published:
03 July 2008

Active IWW Map (6 Mb)

The final version of the Main Map shows the selected Key Inland Waterways together with background contextual information presented in graphical format on different layers. Please note this is a large file which takes time to download. You may find it easier to right click on the link and select Save Target As (IE).

Published:
03 July 2008

Summary Map A (3 Mb)

Highlights the Key Inland Waterways and the selected Other waterways against the basic geographic and administrative information, all from the Main Map. Please note this is a large file which takes time to download. You may find it easier to right click on the link and select Save Target As (IE).

Published:
03 July 2008

Summary Map B (11 Mb)

Map of Key Inland Waterways of Great Britain with Freight Potential. Map shows the inland waterways that are over 6m limiting width, and those that are between 4m and 6m limiting width, again with the basic geographic and administrative information, all from the Main Map. Please note this is a large file which takes time to download. You may find it easier to right click on the link and select Save Target As (IE).

Published:
03 July 2008

Summary Map C (7 Mb)

Shows all inland waterways as prepared and categorised by the Ordnance Survey in its Strategi dataset. To this has been added the towns and ports data from the Main Map. This is intended to give the full context of the selected Key Inland Waterways. Please note this is a large file which takes time to download. You may find it easier to right click on the link and select Save Target As (IE).

Published:
03 July 2008
