

---

Safety

---

Railway safety regime

The Railways and Other Guided Transport Systems (Safety) Regulations 2006 (ROGS) provide the new regulatory regime for rail safety.

Published:
23 October 2007

---

Safety Regulator

The Office of Rail Regulation (ORR) is the independent health and safety regulator for the GB railway.

Published:
23 October 2007
Last update:
17 November 2008

---

European Railway Safety Directive

The EC Safety Directive (2004) has established a common regulatory framework for rail safety across the EU.

Published:
23 October 2007

---

Channel Tunnel Safety Authority

Channel Tunnel Safety Authority

Published:
23 October 2007

Investigation of Accidents

The Railways and Other Guided Transport Systems (Safety) Regulations 2006 (ROGS) provide the new regulatory regime for rail safety.

Published:

23 October 2007

---

Rail Safety Performance Statistics

The Office of Rail Regulation (ORR) and the Rail Safety and Standards Board (RSSB) record data and maintain statistics on GB railway safety performance.

Published:

23 October 2007

---

British Transport Police (BTP)

The BTP is responsible for pursuing criminal prosecutions following a rail accident.

Published:

23 October 2007

---

Accidents

Contains information about rail accidents including Paddington and Hatfield.

---