

TransXChange

TransXChange is a Department for Transport sponsored protocol which defines a national data standard for the interchange of bus route registration, route and timetable information between operators, the Traffic Area Offices, Local Authorities and Passenger Transport Executives, and traveline - the National Passenger Transport Information System. This site contains information about the TransXChange Protocol, which can be downloaded.

Version 1.2 (General and registration versions)

TransXChange is a DfT sponsored protocol defining a national data standard for interchange of bus service information. Documents include Schema change note v1.2.1, Schema v1.2.1 (general), Schema v1.2.1R (registration), Stylesheet v1.2 (general) (unchanged for v1.2.1), Schema data dictionaries for v1.2.1 and v1.2.1R, Schema user guide v1.2 and 1.2R (unchanged for v1.2.1), stylesheet user guide v1.2 and 1.2R (unchanged for v1.2.1) and stylesheet v1.2 (registration) (unchanged for v1.2.1)

Archive of earlier documents

TransXChange is a DfT sponsored protocol defining a national data standard for interchange of bus service information. The archived documents include scope and requirements, logical reference model, standards classification, schema v1.1, schema v1.1 documentation overview, schema data dictionary v1.1, schema BNF definition v1.1, scope of prototypes, schema v1.2 (general) and schema v1.2R (registration).
