

Information systems for street and highway works

Letter regarding feasibility study into use of information systems in road works

Letter regarding the report on use of information technology in aspects of management of highway and street works.

Published:
14 September 2005

Management Summary

Management Summary of the AMTEC Report.

Published:
04 November 2004

Report on Information Systems for Street and Highway Works (3 Mb)

AMTEC Consulting Ltd have carried out a feasibility study for the Department into the potential for utilising information technology in aspects of the management of highway and street works.

Published:
04 November 2004
