

Ports policy review

Ports policy review interim report

DfT's Interim Report on the Ports Policy Review, following consultation undertaken in 2006.

Published:

19 July 2007

Update of Port Demand Forecasts and Transshipment Studies (947 kb)

This report, commissioned by DfT from MDS Transmodal, provides long-term forecasts of freight traffic and an assessment of the impacts of additional container port capacity for the transshipment market, it updates two studies published on this website on 22 May 2006 (see Related Links).

Published:

19 July 2007

UK port demand forecast updates - terms of reference

The Department has appointed MDS Transmodal to update the Port Traffic Forecasts and Transshipment Studies, published in May 2006, in accordance with these terms of reference. The updates will be published in due course.

Published:

08 May 2007

Technical audit of the transshipment study - terms of reference

The Department has appointed Imperial College to undertake a technical audit of the MDS transmodal container port transshipment study.

Published:
05 June 2008

For related documents, pages and internet links, see the column on the right.