

---

National Statistics Quality Review Programme

---

National Statistics Quality Reviews are an important way of ensuring statistics are fit for purpose and that quality is maintained and improved. The aim is to cover all outputs over a five-year cycle of reviews.

Reports are now available on

- Maritime statistics data systems (see related link)
- Road accident statistics (see related link)
- National Travel Survey (see related link)
- Bus, Coach and Light Rail Statistics (see related link)
- Road freight statistics (see related link)
- UK Waterborne Freight (see related link)
- Road Traffic and Road Lengths (see related link)

Related Information on other sites

- National statistics : Quality Reviews (see related link)

For related documents, pages and internet links, see the column on the right.