

---

Sustainable school travel database

---

The sustainable school travel database is a catalogue of materials relating to sustainable travel. Some of the materials are suitable for use in the classroom and others are not. They contain information relating to encouraging greater use of walking, cycling, public transport and car sharing for school journeys.

The resources contained in the database are primarily concerned with sustainable travel, but some also address issues of road safety.

www.databases.dft.gov.uk/schools