The Times - "Drivers in worse jam as traffic plan fails"

Sir,

I was disappointed to see that you chose to cut the first three paragraphs of my letter of 9 May in which I responded to your article 'Drivers in worse jam as traffic plan fails'.

To reiterate the points you cut - to claim this report was buried is nonsense. This was a publicly available report, the publication date of which was pre-announced.

The full letter is now published on the department's website at <http://www.dft.gov.uk/press/responsesandcoverage/timetimesfri9may>.
