

---

Accessibility and Equalities Unit

---

The Accessibility and Equalities Unit's aim is to make policies and provision for public transport users, pedestrians and motorists that are acceptable, accessible, available, affordable and safe, and to promote diversity in transport policy development. These pages provide more information that explains what the Unit is doing to achieve this aim and about the work it is undertaking across its responsibilities.

Who we are and what we do

Information about the Department for Transport's Accessibility and Equalities Unit, how it is organised and how to contact it.

Published:

14 December 2005

Last update:

23 July 2008

---

Accessibility and Equalities Unit business plan

The Unit's Business Plan explains its previous year's achievements, its contribution to the Department's aims and objectives and outlines the next year's work programme.

---

Accessibility and Equalities Unit research programme 2007-08

The research programme sets out the Accessibility and Equalities Unit's aims, evidence needs and stakeholder engagement.

Published:

05 September 2007

---

Travel Training Discussion Document and Strategy Outline (363 kb)

This leaflet outlines the Department's strategy relating to travel training. It also asks questions of interested groups in order to inform the work programme for the next 12 months. In addition, it details an e-mail address for comments to be made to.

Published:

04 November 2008

---

Publications and other resources

Information on publications produced by the Department for Transport's Accessibility and Equalities Unit and other online resources.

Published:

03 March 2005

---

For related documents, pages and internet links, see the column on the right.