Alisha was visited by the local radio station who interviewed her about the collision. Write what you think Alisha said during part of the interview:

Reporter: Hello Alisha, can you tell us a little bit about yourself?

Alisha: _____

Reporter: Now, you were recently hurt in a road collision. Can you tell me what happened?

Alisha: _____

Reporter: Well, I can see that you have to stay in bed for some time because of your injuries. How else has this collision affected you?

Alisha: _____

Reporter: What advice can you give to other children about being safer in cars?

3. Look at page 20 of the Tales of the Road booklet. There are several important pieces of information about riding in cars. Alisha's story is about one of these.

Choose one of the other six and imagine that you are going to make a short road safety video about it.

- Base your story on a child aged 7–11, like Alisha
- Think of a story which involves a car journey where the child nearly gets hurt
- Create a storyboard – a series of drawings with captions showing what happens in each scene. Use the back of this sheet
- There should be a clear safety message
