Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 10th and my acknowledgement of 11th January 2008, concerning your request for information regarding fly-wheel disintegration on Peugeot 307 vehicles.

I am advised by our Vehicle Safety Branch that a search of their defects and recalls databases has not revealed any reports or recalls for this. However, Peugeot have confirmed to my colleagues that they are aware of this defect, which they believe is not a safety defect as it can be identified by routine maintenance or by noise to the driver.

If you have any queries about the information you have received, please contact me, and I will be happy to assist you. My contact details are given at the head of this letter.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0001088.

If you are unhappy with the information supplied, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

VOSA Corporate Office,
Berkeley House,
Croydon Street,
Bristol,
BS5 0DA

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
