Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 7th September 2008 in which you ask for a copy of the prosecution policy of the Vehicle and Operator Services Agency (VOSA).

I can confirm that there is no specific policy on whether or not to prosecute. This is decided on the outcome of a "Public Interest Test". I attach to the covering e-mail a copy of a Powerpoint presentation which has been used by VOSA during staff training/awareness sessions within the organization, which shows the process used by VOSA.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0001475.

If you are unhappy with the information supplied, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

VOSA Corporate Office,
Berkeley House,
Croydon Street,
Bristol,
BS5 0DA

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk

giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
