Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 12th June 2009 concerning a register of drivers offences following the introduction of graduated fixed penalties, and our subsequent telephone conversation.

I believe my colleague (name removed) has or will be contacting you to discuss the matter. From my conversation with her, she confirmed that VOSA holds information in relation to drivers who have been issued with a fixed penalty. There is no intention (in fact it would put VOSA in breach of the Data Protection Act 1998) to make this information available to any third parties, unless it is with the express permission of the subject.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0001954.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

VOSA Corporate Office,
Berkeley House,
Croydon Street,
Bristol,
BS5 0DA

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.

You can write to the Information Commissioner at:

Water Lane,
Wilmslow,
Cheshire

Yours sincerely
