Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 18th March 2010 requesting information, which we have dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked for details of trailers over 3.5 tonnes operating in the UK, to include the name of the trailer type, trailer operator and trailer manufacturer.

As you state in your request, trailers are not registered, and therefore VOSA does not hold any information in regards to who operates which trailers. I have attached a spreadsheet to the covering e-mail which contains details recorded at first or annual test during the period 12th April 2009 to 11th April 2010. This is the only data we hold of this nature. However, the data shown is from recorded data entered manually at test centres and could thus contain errors.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0002538.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk

giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
