

IM 13 - Exterior Projections – External Surface - ISSUED 29/06/04

The Procedure and Standards column of the first page describes “external surface” as being between the floorline and a height of two metres.

The height of two metres must be measured from the ground.

Please amend the first line to read “Between the floorline and a height of two metres from the ground.”